WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 2019 – 6:30 AM WEATHER FORECAST

This morning's weather will feature plenty of sunshine and less wind than yesterday as temperatures quickly climb through the 60s into the upper 70s around lunch time. Some clouds will bubble up during the afternoon with westerly wind increasing to around 4-8 mph with a few gusts of 12-14 mph later in the afternoon as the high reaches 82. A slight (20 percent) chance for a shower or storm will become possible around 3 p.m., but most of the area is expected to be rain-free. Tonight will be calm and cool again with a low in the upper 50s. Expect another warm day tomorrow with a little more wind in the afternoon from the west to southwest as the high reaches the lower 80s. More cloudiness is expected for the quarterfinal matches, but the forecast is dry with high pressure still in control. Friday's weather will turn noticeably windier and somewhat more humid as southwest flow kicks in, with sustained winds of 10-15 mph and afternoon wind gusts over 25 mph possible in advance of an approaching cold front. The front will hover across the area all weekend, providing a few potential opportunities for rain and maybe thunderstorms from Friday through next weekend. Highs will remain in the low to mid 80s with lows in the low to mid 60s.
