2017 U.S. WOMEN'S AMATEUR — SAN DIEGO CC

USGA

SUNDAY, AUGUST 13, 2017 – 6 AM WEATHER FORECAST

We finish our championship in fine-weather fashion. Once again, we have a consistent westerly flow off the Pacific Ocean. Mild and stable air continues to influence the southern CA coast. As usual, we have some low stratus clouds to start the day, but most of the day will be mostly sunny. It looks like we will see the sun emerge at 10:15 AM today and at 10:45 AM tomorrow. Winds start out light, but become established from the west this afternoon at 6 to 12 mph with a few mid-afternoon gusts to 15. Identical wind forecast for tomorrow. For those still in town after our championship, same weather pattern expected with just a few degrees cooler by mid-week. Monsoonal moisture is farther east, so probably won't see afternoon showers and storms developing to our east today.
