HISTORY

In 1948, the USGA inaugurated the U.S. Junior Amateur Championship to determine the best junior golfer in the United States and to help junior golfers realize the most from the game, win or lose. The first U.S. Junior Amateur was played at the University of Michigan Golf Course and received 495 entries.

Dean Lind, of Rockford, Ill., was the first champion. Lind defeated Ken Venturi, of San Francisco, a future U.S. Open champion, in the final. Only two players, Tiger Woods and Jordan Spieth, have won the Junior Amateur more than once; Woods winning in 1991, 1992 and 1993, and Spieth in 2009 and 2011. Other notable champions include Johnny Miller, David Duval, Scottie Scheffler and Will Zalatoris.

CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY

This large sterling silver trophy, produced by J.E. Caldwell and Co., of Philadelphia, is a replica of a bowl produced by noted early American silversmith Samuel Williamson, which is in the collection of the Philadelphia Museum of Art. Dean Lind was the first to receive the trophy after his 1948 victory at the University of Michigan Golf Course, in Ann Arbor, Mich.

The original U.S. Junior Amateur Trophy is on display at the USGA Golf Museum in Far Hills, N.J.

USGA AND BANDON DUNES GOLF RESORT

This is the eighth USGA championship to be conducted at Bandon Dunes Golf Resort,. The resort most recently hosted the U.S. Amateur in 2020, won by Tyler Strafaci. This will be the first U.S. Junior Amateur played at Bandon Dunes Golf Resort. With the 2022 U.S. Junior Amateur, Bandon Dunes becomes the first site to host eight different USGA championships.

In 2021, the USGA and Bandon Dunes Golf Resort announced an agreement that will bring 13 USGA amateur championships to the resort over the next 23 years. Bandon Dunes Golf Resort will host both the U.S. Women's Amateur and U.S. Amateur in 2032 and again in 2041, marking the first time those two original USGA championships will be contested on the same site in the same calendar year. The resort will also host the U.S. Junior Amateur and U.S. Girls' Junior in 2045, which will mark the fourth time those championships will be conducted at the same facility in the same year.
