Helen Yeung

Q. You started with a bogey, can you talk me through that?

HELEN YEUNG: Yeah, afterward I just kind of kept my own game. I had good ball-striking coming into today's round, so I just kept my head up.

Q. Mentally, how did you get past the mistake?

HELEN YEUNG: I definitely just trash it out. Golf, there's always going to be misses, and I definitely kept my head up and played my own game. I wasn't going to let one hole ruin my round.

Q. What did you learn from your performance at the Women's Amateur last year?

HELEN YEUNG: With such a high level tournament, I learned to just breathe, calm myself down and play my own ball.
