> “Hubert Green was an incredible competitor whose tenacity on the course defined his playing career. His 1977 U.S. Open win under extreme circumstances was the definition of grit and perseverance – the true mark of a champion. We are saddened to lose him among an elite group within our U.S. Open circle. We extend our deepest condolences to his family as we celebrate his incredible accomplishments today.”
>
> For images click here.

---

https://mediacenter.usga.org/press-releases?item=122620