

SIASCONSET, Mass. (Sept. 21, 2021) – The United States Golf Association (USGA) today announced tee times for the first two rounds of the 40th U.S. Mid-Amateur Championship, Saturday (Sept. 25) and Sunday (Sept. 26), at 6,652-yard, par-70 Sankaty Head Golf Club, in Siasconset, Mass., and at 6,765-yard, par-70 Miacomet Golf Course, in Nantucket, Mass.

The U.S. Mid-Amateur consists of 36 holes of stroke play on Sept. 25 and 26, after which the 264-player field will be reduced to the low 64 scorers. There will be six rounds of match play, starting Sept. 27. The quarterfinals and semifinals are slated for Wednesday, Sept. 29. The championship is scheduled to conclude with a 36-hole final on Thursday, Sept. 30, starting at 7 a.m. EDT. The U.S. Mid-Amateur champion receives a full exemption into the 2022 U.S. Open Championship.

About the USGA

The USGA is a nonprofit organization that celebrates, serves and advances the game of golf. Founded in 1894, we conduct many of golf’s premier professional and amateur championships, including the U.S. Open and U.S. Women’s Open. With The R&A, we govern the sport via a global set of playing, equipment, handicapping and amateur status rules. The USGA campus in Liberty Corner, New Jersey, is home to the Association’s Research and Test Center, where science and innovation are fueling a healthy and sustainable game for the future. The campus is also home to the USGA Golf Museum, where we honor the game by curating the world’s most comprehensive archive of golf artifacts. To learn more, visit usga.org.
