"The Finalists for the Class of 2027 represent an extraordinary range of accomplishments and contributions to the game of golf," said Mike Trostel, director of the World Golf Hall of Fame. "This distinguished group deserves recognition for the lasting impact they made on the sport in their own way as competitors, teachers, architects, broadcasters and innovators."

The WGHOH received 162 public nominations for the Class of 2027. Each nominee was vetted by a Nominating Committee which was divided into four working groups representing each of the four categories. Each group included a chair and 12 members comprised of media, WGHOH members and golf industry professionals.

A Selection Committee of 24 individuals, comprised of media, WGHOH members and the WGHOH Board of Directors, will
